

ONLINE MEET UP CODE OF CONDUCT

Thank you for signing up to attend our online meet up, we look forward to you joining us. To ensure everyone is able to take part and enjoy the session we ask that attendee's follow this code of conduct at all times. This includes;

- Not sharing the meet up links or passwords online or with individuals. If you know someone who would like to attend they are very welcome to join us, they will just need to sign up via Eventbrite.
- If you are ever worried about someone during the meet up or see something that doesn't feel right, please let a member of staff know by sending a private message via the chat function.
- Please do not use offensive language (like swearing, or using words that might offend someone).
- Please do not share personal information (like your phone number, address or bank information) and please ensure that you don't have any personal information or personal items that you wouldn't want others to see in the background of your camera.
- Please do not share any lewd, offensive or illegal content via the content sharing functionality.
- Please be considerate and respectful of all attendee's and give everyone the chance to speak. If you are finding it difficult to be heard then you can use the chat function to let the group know that you'd like to say something. The reactions can also highlight to others that you'd like to speak.
- Please respect others' wishes if they choose to take part in the meet up without enabling video, this is every individual's choice.
- When taking part, please do not record any part of the meeting or take any pictures without the permission of everyone in the group.

In the event that attendee's fail to follow this code of conduct they will be contacted by our team. We reserve the right to remove attendee's from the meeting if necessary to maintain a safe environment for the rest of the group.

Thank you for reading this code of conduct we look forward to you joining a future meet up. If you have any questions in the meantime you can get in touch on 0808 800 0004 or by emailing the relevant team;
